

Episode #12 – Be ready for change with Kylee Fitzpatrick

In this episode we chat about change and disruption with Kylee Fitzpatrick – Founder of the Performance Code.

Kylee had a long and successful career in corporate before starting her own business. Working for New Corporation for over 20 years.

Returning to a leadership role with three young children, she found myself despondent with a lack of support, mentors and resources to help her better navigate the balance of her personal life with career, business or entrepreneurial paths and a desire to make a difference.

She oversaw a huge transition period at News Corp in a Change Management role, and prepared herself well for the move into her own business.

In the interview she shares how individuals can be prepared for change, how they need to be adaptable and this strikes to the core of the skill any business owner needs in a fast paced and changeable economy.

Aside from her consulting work, she is passionate about empowering women through her social enterprise – TEAM Women Australia.

Her current motto in life is

"alone we can do so little, together we can do much more" - Helen Keller

I'm sure you'll get a lot out of this discussion and if you want to know more about Kylee's work, you can connect with her on LinkedIn.
